

LISTENING TO THE BEEP of the Russian earth satellite is John A. Evans, 7615 Darmstadt Rd., amateur radio operator. Evans says he can hear the radio signals from the object for about 30 minutes, considered unusual. The globe is orbiting the Earth at 18,000 miles an hour. "It sounds like a cricket," Evans observes. (Staff Photo)